Phone: (704) 784-4151 Fax: (704) 784-4109

Our mission is to provide trained independent advocates to represent and promote the best interests of abused, neglected, and dependent children in the state court system and to work towards a plan that ensures that these children are in a safe permanent home. A Guardian ad Litem is a trained community volunteer who is paired with an Attorney Advocate to ensure that the child's rights and best interests are before the Court. Ad Litem means "this litigation" or "for this case". The GAL is appointed to represent the child only for the duration of the Court's involvement and does not serve as the child's legal guardian. The GAL serves as the child's voice in court. Duties include exploring all the facts relevant to the case, making recommendations to the Court, and monitoring the case so that it will move through the Court and Social Service systems without needless delays. The GAL is the only person whose sole task is to focus on the best interests of the child.

Cabarrus Mental Health Services Delivery Monitoring/Legislative Education: To better advocate for accessible, affordable quality mental health services, the MHA compiles and communicates data related to the local mental health services delivery system. Related public policy processes are monitored and community education is provided. The MHA maintains strong ties to policy makers on all levels to continually educate them on local mental health issues and to advocate for necessary policy changes to enhance mental health services delivery with Cabarrus County.

Information and Referral Services: MHA provides information and referrals to individuals with questions about mental health treatment services and other mental health issues. Visitors to the MHA website which averages more than 3,000 visits per month can access an on-line directory to "Find a Practitioner." Providers listed on the site are paid members and are licensed and certified mental health professionals. The website also serves as an educational tool as well as a link to many useful mental health resources. Practitioners interested in adding a listing to the on-line directory should call 704.365.3454.

Suicide Prevention Training: MHA staff are certified to deliver two different evidenced-based suicide prevention trainings – 1) QPR (Question, Persuade, and Refer), a one to two hour lunch-in-learn style training suitable for many different audiences. The training offers three steps anyone can learn to help prevent suicide; and 2) ASIST (Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training), a 2-day workshop designed to teach the skills to competently and confidently intervene with an individual at risk of suicide. Skills and principles are illustrated with case studies, role-play simulations, group discussions, etc. Contact the MHA directly for scheduling by calling 704.365.3454.

Community Education and Outreach: MHA organizes community forums on mental health issues, arranges for delivery within the community of speaking programs on various mental health topics, attends health and agency fairs, distributes mental health literature, etc. To arrange for MHA to deliver or coordinate a program to your group or to participate in your next event, call 704.365.3454 or email mha@mhacentralcarolians.org.

Residential/Supportive Housing: MHA works to generate resources to establish supportive housing for persons with SPMI (Severe & Persistent Mental Illness) – group homes, supportive apartments, and independent living. MHA works with the local Continuum of Care in order to address the ongoing unmet housing need within Cabarrus County.
