

nonprofit congress

many missions, one voice

An initiative of  National Council of Nonprofit Associations
National Voice • State Focus • Local Impact

The future of the nonprofit sector is coming fast.
Don't miss your chance to influence it first hand!

What is Nonprofit Congress 2008 - Convene • Connect • Commit?

From June 1 - 4, 2008, hundreds of nonprofit professionals will join together in Washington, DC for four days of celebration, learning, and action. Find out more at www.nonprofitcongress.org/meeting.

Why should I attend?

You want to learn new skills and strategies to advance your organization and your career. You want to network with hundreds of people who share your passion for the nonprofit sector and your desire to act collectively for positive change.

Who will be at the meeting?

Experienced and emerging nonprofit professionals, board members, foundation representatives, volunteers, and others from every state and every type and size of nonprofit.

What will happen?

- 2008 Nonprofit Expo. Discover new innovations and services for nonprofits.
- Inspiring and Thought-Provoking Plenary Discussions, including a panel of emerging leaders sharing their vision for the future of the nonprofit sector.
- Educational Sessions. Learn best practices and innovative ideas from recognized experts in areas such as advocacy, marketing, leadership, collaboration, technology, and public awareness.
- Lobby Day. Carry the message of a united nonprofit sector to your Congressional representatives.

How can I attend?

Register online at www.nonprofitcongress.org/register by April 11. Enter the code 2k8sp and receive $100 off the regular registration rate of $475. (If you are a student, contact eortiz@ncna.org to ask about the student registration rate of $175. Hurry - only a few student registrations remain!)